

To help women create and have a great relationship...

No Prince Intensive***

The last 40 years of unprecedented opportunities for women and shifts in the possibility of relationships have given us the chance to create partnerships that are different than we ever thought could exist. Relationships today can be customized to suit the couple involved so clarity in knowing what you want is vital. With all the new openings for how relationships can be crafted, the best of us needs guidance in creating our own path to partnership.

This ongoing intensive is based on Life Work's 25 years of experience in offering the Having What You Want with a Man course, numerous groups, short courses and Marriage Works: A 6-Month intensive Designed to Move You Down the Aisle, all helping thousands of women find and make a relationship that fits them. Since the 20-hour Having What You Want with a Man Weekend course is a prerequisite for this new group, this No Prince Intensive (NPI) will personalize and help uncover what each woman is looking for in her search for a relationship. Making your choices and crafting a relationship is both a privilege and a responsibility that we will vigorously examine and guide you toward.

You can have what you want. You only have to uncover what that means for you. In this new group you will explore yourself, become clear and then make new, revelatory choices that will lead you to a relationship that encourages and supports the very best possibility of who you want to be. Watching each other and developing the courage to dig deep, heal the past, and move in new directions, the women in the new group will be examples of what is possible when the human spirit and opening heart combine to create partnership with a good man who will cherish them. We will use many tools and practical exercises to create a bright and loving future for those women who are ready to find happiness and contentment with a loving partner.

Please contact the Life Works office if you want to be a member of this group when it is offered again.

*and there are thousands of nice guys who, when treated well by a good woman, will be princely from time to time. All you need is one special guy who has the desire, willingness and ability to be devoted to you and who can love the great woman you are.
