Emphatically not a one-sided or male-bashing book

Collaboratively written by Marilyn Graman and Maureen Walsh, There Is NO PRINCE and Other Truths Your Mother Never Told You is a relationship self-help guide for women in the 21st century. It is emphatically not a one-sided or male-bashing book; it is a denouncement of the exaggerated ideal of a "prince," that is, a perfect man who always does everything right. There Is No Prince shows women the way to accepting that men are human; that men have a greater natural tendency to forget details than women; and that while most men want to please their mates (the ones that don't want to aren't worth pursuing), nearly all men need help and that all women need to speak up and communicate their wants and needs because it is unfair and self-defeating to expect a man to magically or telepathically know what is going through a woman's mind. There Is No Prince is an enthusiastically recommended book about taking a realistic and practical road to true love and contentment.
