

Free Seminar @ Life Works

For Women Only... Wednesday, February 17, 2010

The Most Important Thing Men Want You to Know

At Life Works we believe that relationships are very different than they appear in our culture. We hold that men do not feel complete without a partner and when they find one they love, cherish and want to be with us. We say that men are tenderhearted and long to be understood for who they are. In fact, we even wrote a book about relationships entitled There is NO Prince and Other Truths Your Mother Never Told You to help women understand themselves and men better.

Join us this evening for Life Works' newest observations and wisdom on how to have a fabulous relationship with a nice man who when treated well by a good woman will be princely from time to time. You'll leave clearer about how to have a loving, sharing, life-long partnership which a man who can help you be your full, authentic self. How's that for an alternative to "the woman behind the man stuff of earlier relationships?"

This evening is designed to welcome and introduce guests to Life Works as well as deepen, enrich and review focal points of the Workshop for graduates. These evenings are part of an ongoing occasional seminar series designed to encourage a lively discussion and further investigation into how we can have more of what we want in life. Do join us!

Goal: To discover if Life Works is the place for you to explore having more of what you want in life. Guests are invited to spend the evening with people who have completed our courses. If you have friends or family who are interested in the workshops, please invite them.
